

Miscellaneous other Buildings on Town Square

Sarah Toomer Farr Young Clegg's Cabin (SW
Ernest Dayton Hot Dog Stand
Works Progress Administration Play School (circa 1930s)
City Co. Tennis Courts (see court)
#3 Social Hall

Marie
Sarah
Barzee
Murray

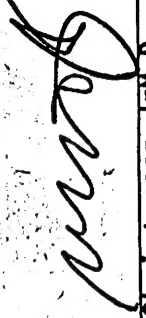

2/16/82 Cystourethroscopy, transurethral resection of prostate gland.

History and Essential Physical Findings: The patient is an 82 year old white married male accountant insurance man with long standing prostatic symptomatology. There is no history of rhrrhea, lues, diabetes, TB, back, perineal injury, hematuria or stones. IVP was in normal limits. VCUG gave evidence of outlet obstruction with residual urine, culation and savor deformity of the urethra. Past history-- patient has had eral herniorrhaphies, T&A, appendectomy. No other operations, illnesses, injuries. own allergies. Review of systems/family history: Non-contributory. Physical exam- tially within normal limits save for bilateral herniorrhaphy scars, prostate ated at 15 grams.

Laboratory, X-ray and Consultation Findings: Chest film showed mild cardiomegaly, no failure of onia. Urine grew out greater than 10 to the 5th bacilla species sensitive to illin, Keflasporens, Chlorphenacol, Erythromycin, Garmycin, Mandols, Penicillin, cycline. Post operative hematocrit 41%, white count 12,500 with normal differential. phos. within normal limits at 0.4 units. Patient had a normal SMA save for high t 124, high alk. phos at 76 and low calcium at 7.8. Patient had normal PTT and me and platelet count. Initial urinalysis showed micropyohematuria.

Hospital with Complications, if any: Patient taken to surgery where the above mentioned dures were performed. Pathological evaluation of the surgical specimen revealed n prostate hyperplasia. The patient had benign convalescence.

Treatment, Final Disposition on Discharge and Prognosis: Office appointment 10 days. Patient has instructed in post hospitalization care. Ceflor 250 mg #40, sig: 1 po qid.

Signed  W. Bart Christenson, Jr M.D. Physician

2/16/82 r-2/22/82